

Mixed Use Development Proposal

Newlands of Culloden, Inverness-shire

KIRKWOOD HOMES

Background

Aberdeenshire based Kirkwood Homes is one of the longest established independently owned housebuilders in Scotland. Established in 1985, Kirkwood Homes has a strong track record for building luxury family homes in North and East Scotland, and is pleased to be bringing forward these proposals.

Kirkwood Homes is a strong advocate of open and transparent public consultation, and will ensure that this is adhered to as part of this pre-application process. All feedback received at this event and throughout the consultation process is welcomed and will help inform the final proposals.

Proposal

This pre-application consultation relates to an intended application for planning permission by Kirkwood Homes for mixed use development of residential, community, business / commercial and tourism uses on land at Newlands of Culloden (Ref: 19/004229/PAN).

Notification of this event has been sent to the Highland Council, Croy Community Council and advertised in the Inverness Courier.
